++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold and dry with icy stretches.

Today:
A frosty start with icy stretches. Dry with sunny spells during the morning, but cloud increasing through the day from the south, turning the low sun hazy. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
Low cloud increases from the south overnight, bringing with it a risk of the odd patch of rain or snow later. A cold and calm night with some frost. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Monday:
A rather cloudy but mostly dry and calm day on Monday. The odd rain or snow shower becoming increasingly likely from early evening. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Windy with rain and snow on Tuesday, giving ice in places. Turning brighter and showery later. Perhaps rain in the south Wednesday, otherwise fine. Further outbreaks of rain arriving Thursday.
